

AACR Annual Meeting 2024
San Diego, CA
April 25 – 30, 2025

AACR Member-Exclusive Benefit: Early-Access to Annual Meeting Housing Reservations
Frequently Asked Questions

As a member-exclusive benefit, AACR members in good standing (dues paid through December 31, 2024 or eligibility recertified) are eligible to take advantage of this opportunity to reserve hotel accommodations for the AACR Annual Meeting 2025 before reservations open to all attendees. Reservations may be made at any of the hotels in the official AACR conference hotel listing during the following one-week period:

Tuesday, September 17, 2024 (open at 9:00 a.m. ET) through Monday, September 23, 2024 (11:59 p.m. ET)

Questions	Answers
What does this member-exclusive benefit mean?	This offer provides AACR members in good standing (dues paid through December 31, 2024 or eligibility recertified) with an opportunity to secure Annual Meeting 2025 hotel accommodations one week in advance of reservations opening to all attendees.
How long is this opportunity available?	This exclusive opportunity is available for one week only during the period of Tuesday, September 17, 2024 at 9:00 a.m. ET through Monday, September 23, 2024 at 11:59 p.m. ET.
How many rooms can I reserve during the early-access housing reservation period?	Each AACR member is allowed one hotel reservation during this one week period. (Members may reserve additional rooms as necessary, beginning Tuesday, September 24, 2024.)
How do I reserve additional rooms?	Members may reserve additional rooms as necessary, beginning Tuesday, September 24, 2024.
Do my AACR member dues have to be paid to take advantage of this exclusive benefit ?	Yes, only AACR members in good standing with dues paid through December 31, 2024 or beyond, or eligibility recertified for non dues paying members, are eligible for this benefit.
What is the best way to bring my AACR membership current?	AACR members may log on to myAACR to check dues status and make a payment using the secure AACR site. Members may also contact the Membership

AACR Annual Meeting 2024
San Diego, CA
April 25 – 30, 2025

	Department with any questions at membership@aacr.org or (215) 440-9300.
I forgot my username and/or password for myAACR – what can I do?	You may select the Forgot Password link to reset your password or submit a Get AACR IT Help request for assistance.
I’m not yet an AACR member, but I’m interested in joining and would like to take advantage of the early-access housing reservation period?	Nonmembers are encouraged to submit an application for AACR membership without delay. Every effort will be made by AACR to process applications promptly upon receipt so that interested candidates can enjoy the many benefits of membership including early-access to housing reservations.
How do I apply for AACR Membership?	The best way to become an AACR member is to submit the Membership Application online . You may also download the application and submit with required supporting documents to membership@aacr.org .
I was an AACR member before but haven’t paid my dues recently. Can I just reactivate my membership?	If your AACR membership has lapsed, we gladly welcome you back! It’s easy to reinstate your membership by logging on to myAACR or submitting the reinstatement application and the required supporting documents.
My career has advanced and I no longer meet the eligibility requirements for my current membership category. What should I do?	We encourage you to transfer to the appropriate membership category by logging on to myAACR or submitting the transfer application and the required supporting documents.
How long will it take?	There is a review and approval process so we recommend you submit your applications as soon as possible. We ask that you allow up to 30 days for completion.